DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on May 25, 2005. These drawings are accepted.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1-11 are objected to because of the following informalities:
Claim 1, line 27: "in amplitude" should be "in the amplitude".
Claim 6, line 2: "limit controller" should be "amplitude limit controller".
Claim 8, line 2: ", signal comprising" should be ", comprising"; line 18: "the direct-current" should be "the variable direct-current".
Claims 9-11, line 1: "The signal compensation circuit" should be "The method".
Claims 2-5 and 7 are dependent on the objected claim 1.
Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-11 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the objection(s) set forth in this Office action.
4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art of record fails to teach or suggest, alone or in a combination, among other things, at least a signal compensation circuit and its method as a whole, the combination of elements and features, which includes a low-speed compensation circuit for detecting changes in the direct-current component of a amplified signal and charging and discharging a capacitor in accordance with the changes; a high-speed compensation circuit for comparing the amplified signal with an allowable amplitude range and charging and discharging the capacitor, when the amplitude of the amplified signal goes outside the allowable amplitude range; and a threshold adjustment circuit for adjusting the allowable amplitude range in response to detected changes by the threshold adjustment circuit as recited in the claim.

Conclusion

5. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters: as listed in the objection section of this Office action.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
